Gridiron Review

VARSITY FOOTBALL: 1971 Warriors captured a full share of this year's Eastern Division title with a fine 7-2 record. The team was led by STAC Player-of-the-Year James Kendrick's powerful running. Jim led the league in total rushing yardage, scoring, and set a conference record with an unprecedented 40 points against Homer. Chenango Valley showed its normal potent offense with the passing of Rick Harrison and the versatility of Jim Kendrick. Defense came through when it had to and backed up the offense by creating many turnovers. Coaches Costello, Ames, and Travis worked hard to make it a successful season. Jim Benko, Steve Taylor, Perry Kendrick, and Jim Kendrick received All-STAC honors. In final revenge in the game of the year, C. V. crushed Owego 48-0 under pressure for the championship. Returning lettermen assure a good nucleus for next year's team.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL: J.V.s had a tough season with a 1-8 record. Bob Lalley and Mike Hall showed fine ability throughout the season. Coaches Marble and Banks worked hard to instill a sense of competition in their players.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL: "A" team — Defense was the name of the game for a 2-2-2 season. A team effort has allowed only four touchdowns in the last two years. Coach Sestak had success in teaching his team the fundamentals of football. "B" team — Posted a 1-1-1 record led by Coach Moyer.

Varsity Cross Country

Coach McDaniel's runners were 5-0 in dual meets this year, and won the Eastern Division Title of the STAC by defeating Catholic Central in a pressure-packed final meet. They were defeated in the East-West Championship by a strong Ithaca team. Tom Ryan led the team and placed high in many highly competitive meets. Many returning lettermen insure a successful season next year.

CV Cagers Conquer East

The varsity Warriors, overcoming a mid-season slump, were still strong enough to defeat CC in the final game of the season, finishing with a 15-3 season, and thus necessitating a divisional play-off with CC. In the playoff game, CV, led by All-STAC player Marty Guy, the league's high scorer, crushed the Crusaders with a famed CV pressure defense. The Warriors lost to a talented Ithaca team in a hard-fought championship game. Throughout the season, the Warriors showed a potent offense, led by Marty Guy, with strong support from Dave Hall, Jim Kendrick, and John Bowen. The "minute-men" (Rick Harrison, Dave DeCastro, Bill Tarbell) proved that hustle was the name of the game on defense. Coach Bob McDaniel kept the Warriors from folding in mid-season, and spurred them on to the championship.

. . . And Again We Conquer

Coach Bill Weckel once again came up with a highly spirited and talented JV team. The young Warriors won the Eastern division with an outstanding 17-1 record and then defeated North in the championship game for the STAC title. Chuck Bruet, Mike Hall, and Perry Kendrick led the team throughout the season and showed a great knack for breaking a game open. The highlight of the season came when the JV's defeated the, at the time, Western Division leader UE on their home court. This game proved their total dominance of the league.

They featured a well balanced scoring attack and good defense to win the third basketball championship of the year for C.V. Tom Brown, Gary Durbin and Tim Linehan showed fine ability under the critical eye of Coach Bill. Sestack.

7th And 8th GRADE BASKETBALL: The 7th grade team finished the season with an 8-6 record, the 8th grade team with a 10-6 record. Both teams showed much promise for the future and should carry on the winning tradition at C.V.

Wrestling Roundup

VARSITY WRESTLING: Inexperience hurt the squad this year. The team suffered through an 0-11 season under first-year varsity coach Gary Moyer. Gary Graham led the team in scoring and ended an excellent wrestling career at Chenango Valley. More school spirit would undoubtedly help the wrestling team in the future. Coach Moyer hopes to install a more competitive wrestling program at CV in the years to come. Increased participation at the Junior High level promises more experienced grapplers to come.

JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING: JV wrestlers, led by Coach Ed Banks, showed great spirit in their matches. Again, the lack of experience within the team proved disastrous. These young wrestlers will undoubtedly prove their value when they gain added experience and reach the varsity level.

Diamond Dust

VARSITY BASEBALL: This year's team, although young and inexperienced, finished the season with another winning campaign under Coach DeCastro's fine leadership. Although victories resulted from team effort, two players received special honors. Pitcher Marty Guy and outfielder Steve Medovich were named to the All-STAC second team at their respective positions. Many returning underclassmen assure a promising future for the team.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL: Coach Weckel again displayed his special talent for winning championships as he led his team to the Eastern Division Crown with a 10-5 record. However, they lost to a strong U.E. club, 9-7, in the championship game. The team was led by the strong pitching of Dave Rigan, Ken Cook, and Mark Pickett.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL: The ninth grade baseball team suffered their first losing season in several years when they finished with a 5-7 record. Coach Osborne again did his best in encouraging his players. Mike Hall and Jim Sayer led the team in hitting.
